Intrepid Announces Executive Appointment

Stamford, CT — Intrepid Aviation announced today the appointment of Dan Perez to EVP & Chief Operating Officer. Dan most recently served as EVP Operations & Aircraft Programs since 2015 and prior to this he held the roles of SVP Technical Operations and VP Asset Management.

Mr. Perez joined Intrepid in 2012 bringing 16 years of industry experience, with an emphasis in technical and operations management. Prior to Intrepid, Dan built a strong performance and leadership track record in roles at Southern Air, United Airlines and America West Airlines.

“Mr. Perez has been a valuable member of the leadership team here at Intrepid, managing a number of projects and initiatives including, most recently, the successful transition of 7 A330s into Turkish airlines,” commented Intrepid’s CEO, Doug Winter. “Dan’s contributions have been a key component of our success story and helping to position the business to further evolve and grow as we look toward 2018 and beyond,” Mr. Winter concluded.
